

COMPLIANCE DECLARATION: HEALTH & SAFETY

It is the intention of the Management of Riantics A/S to ensure that all work activities are carried out in accordance with Riantics A/S Health & Safety Policy and all relevant statutory provisions. The Health & Safety Policy is based on the principles in the international standard ISO 18001:2008 and sets out the procedures for managing health and safety throughout its operations.

Riantics A/S will provide all practicable measures, including equipment, information, instruction, training and supervision for employees and sub-contractors to ensure that their work activities do not put at risk themselves, their colleagues, occupiers of premises, contractors, visitors or members of the public.

Where the need for additional training of employees is identified, all necessary resources will be provided. All sub-contracted workers will be required to demonstrate proof of their training and competence prior to their appointment.

It is the policy of Riantics A/S that all employees will be consulted on aspects of their work activities that impact upon health, safety and welfare.
